

Support Note 1 – Activating InkSaver

Thank you for purchasing InkSaver 2.0 from Ecography. This document explains what you should now do to extend your InkSaver licence beyond the 15-day trial. You should have received an email that contains your 30-digit license code. Each license code is for a single PC; if you have multiple PCs using your ink jet printer please purchase a license for each PC.

Extending your licence

To enter your license code and extend your InkSaver license you must first access InkSaver either via the InkSaver icon on the Windows taskbar or by selecting InkSaver from the Programs menu.

To access InkSaver from the Programs menu:

1. Click the Start button on the Windows taskbar.
2. Select Programs > InkSaver > InkSaver.

1. Your User Name was sent to you in an email after you purchased your InkSaver license.
2. Your 30 digit Registration Code was in the same email. Enter the Registration Code exactly as it is written in the email (you may cut and paste it). Select the OK button, and continue to enjoy the benefits of InkSaver, safe in the knowledge that your printing is having less of an environmental impact and is saving you money.

Registration

Please register your copy of InkSaver via the Ecography website. This also provides access to InkSaver support; if you have any questions regarding InkSaver please email: info@ecography.co.uk. If you think InkSaver is as great as we do please tell your friends and colleagues. If you don't agree please tell us.
